Amazon Fulfillment Center Packer Job Description

- Marking and/or placing a label on containers, container tags, or products
- Measuring, weighing, and counting items and/or merchandise in the inventory
- Examining and inspecting containers, materials, and/or products to ensure that packing specifications are met
- Taking up-to-date and accurate records of products, packages, and order information
- Removing completed and/or defective products from the warehouse
- Overseeing and managing the application of protective materials to inventory
- Packing orders and preparing them for shipping
- Ensuring that the warehouse environment is kept clean, organized, and well-maintained.