

Amazon Learning Ambassador Job Description

- Posting about Amazon products and/or services online, especially on social media and forums
- Creating, sharing, and responding to online reviews
- Actively participating in tradeshow and acting as the spokesperson for Amazon Incorporation
- Networking and building and maintaining trusting relationships with potential customers
- Possessing an adequate and thorough understanding of amazon products and services to inform potential customers
- Providing assistance in the process of organizing marketing events
- Working towards generating sales directly and/or indirectly
- Staying up-to-date with the latest industry development and trends.