

Apprentice Plumber Job Description

- Assisting with all plumbing duties, including repairs, maintenance, and other associated works as instructed by the line manager(s)
- Locating and marking positions for plumbing works such as pipe connection, fixtures in walls and floors, and passage holes
- Testing and identifying pipe leaks with air and water pressure gauges
- Measuring, bending, threading, and cutting pipes using hands, power tools and when needed, machines
- Reading blueprints and drawings to determine the layout of the water supply network, waste and drainage system, and plumbing systems
- Transporting tools, equipment, and material to the job location as needed
- Assisting the plumber in adhering strictly to all safety and health protocols
- To clean up the job site after the work has been completed
- Obeying the plumber's orders and instructions.