

Backhoe Operator Job Description

- Cleaning up and maintaining backhoes and other equipment, as well as making basic repair as necessary
- Reporting malfunctioning equipment or components with defects to supervisors
- Moving levers, pushing pedals, or turning valves to control equipment
- Strictly adhering to safety regulations and ensuring potential hazards are minimized
- Following site grading and operations plans
- Carrying out landfill operations tasks as assigned by supervisors and/or general manager
- Assisting with the loading and unloading of heavy equipment from trucks and tractors
- Working collaboratively with other construction workers and maintaining healthy relationships with them.