

Builder's Laborer Job Description

- Operating various hand power tools such as drills, forklifts, skid loaders, and several other tools as directed by the management
- Shoveling materials such as asphalt and dirt to and from construction areas
- Ensuring that construction sites are properly cleaned and prepared as required, including erecting scaffolding, removing and disposing of waste materials properly, and digging trenches
- Overseeing the loading and unloading of construction supplies from trucks both manually and with the use of relevant equipment
- Reporting incidents or any arising issues immediately to the safety director, foreman or HR in conformity with the incident reporting procedure established by the company
- Operating in compliance with all safety procedures on the job site and reporting violations to the management
- Providing support for contractors and subcontractors
- Digging trenches for drainage, electrical piping, and other utility lines on new construction sites.