

Clinical Pharmacist Job Description

---

- Prescribe medications to patients based on their needs
- Review the patient's chart and identify areas where improvement can be made
- Educate patients about their medications and teach them proper usage
- Evaluate the effectiveness of the medications being taken by the patient
- Monitor adverse reactions to medications and report them
- Provide counseling to patients based on their medications
- Assist with the development of protocols for the administration of medications
- Ensure that the correct dosage of the medication is administered
- Maintain accurate medical records
- Work with other healthcare professionals to improve overall quality of care
- Make recommendations to physicians regarding changes in drug therapy
- Conduct research in order to further knowledge in the area of pharmaceutical sciences
- Develop educational materials for patients
- Perform administrative functions such as ordering supplies, processing insurance claims, etc.
- Participate in professional meetings and conferences
- Prepare and administer periodic examinations
- Design and conduct continuing education programs
- Manage inventory of medications
- Supervise students in internship or residency training programs
- Serve as a preceptor for interns or residents
- Teach others in the profession.