

Company Graphic Designer Job Description

---

- Working collaboratively with other creative departments to formulate and pitch concepts.
- Ensuring that the development, design, and production of graphic art satisfies the creative brief of the company.
- Learning continuously to stay abreast of industry skills, knowledge, and trends.
- Adhering strictly and/or working in compliance with the company's identity and guidelines.
- Maintaining healthy relationships with internal and external stakeholders and discussing the progress of projects and other issues that may arise.
- Preparing and presenting mockups to the management before deciding on a final design or concept.