

Concrete Laborer Job Description

- Interpreting blueprints and reading survey stakes to establish appropriate grades
- Ensuring that worksites are prepared for concrete footings and concrete forms are assembled in certain locations
- Loading and unloading materials, supplies, and work tools to and from trucks and the construction site
- Ensuring that objects or equipment is in the appropriate place where they are needed
- Breaking up or digging out old concrete before pouring new concrete
- Directing mixing truck drivers as to where to be positioned
- Ensuring safety by cleaning up the work environment and wearing the appropriate safety gear
- Restoring or waterproofing existing concrete structures with the use of appropriate compounds and sealants.