

Construction General Worker Job Description

---

- Removing hazardous and/or obsolete materials from worksites
- Working collaboratively and liaising with other professionals that are involved in construction projects, such as carpenters, painters, and/or other tradespeople
- Utilizing power tools and machinery such as forklifts and torches when required
- Assisting with the loading and unloading of materials to be used in construction processes
- Performing preparatory duties to start construction projects, such as backfilling holes, digging trenches, and compacting earth
- Assisting with the building and demolishing of bracing, scaffolding, and temporary structures
- Working in strict compliance with plans and instructions from supervisors or more experienced workers
- Overseeing the operating and maintenance of equipment and machines used in construction.