

Construction Helper Job Description

- Assisting with plumbing, digging trenches, installations, laying out of tools, and performing several other masonry works.
- Ensuring that construction sites are well-managed and kept clean
- Tidying up and preparing construction sites, while also ensuring that safety rules and regulations are strictly adhered to
- Carrying out a variety of assigned tasks on construction sites which may include assisting construction site engineers and supervisors.
- Getting rid of the trash, debris, and other potentially dangerous materials from construction sites
- Assisting construction project manager in the process of surveying to determine what materials are being kept or removed for an upgrade.
- Loading, unloading, and identifying building materials and ensuring that they are distributed to the appropriate locations
- Servicing and operating compressors, generators, power/hand tools, and several other construction equipment.