

Construction Superintendent Job Description

- Working collaboratively with engineers, subcontractors, and several other personnel to determine project requirements and specifications
- Setting and monitoring performance goals and deadlines
- Estimating costs and ensuring that the project falls within the client budget
- Planning inspections and obtaining construction permits from local authorities
- Enforcing and/or implementing safety and quality guidelines
- Keeping accurate track of material stock and orders
- Ensuring that the construction site remains safe, clean, and orderly.