

Costco Stocker Job Description

- Accepting delivered packages and ensuring the proper amount is inside
- Marking items with identifying codes, such as stock, price, or inventory control codes
- Completing customers' mail, phone, and web orders by retrieving the ordered merchandise
- Helping and assisting customers in the selection of products that best suit their personal needs
- Offering customer-friendly service to set aside and promote the company and its products
- Following standard procedures for preparation, assembly, and presentation to ensure customer satisfaction
- Sharing and promoting product knowledge with members and customers while making personal recommendations to them
- Working with salespeople on inventory, and orders.