

DTP Graphic Designer Job Description

- Checking initial and final proofs for errors and ensuring that necessary corrections are made
- Working collaboratively with team members to modify texts and incorporate images
- Providing feedback, recommendations, directions, or suggestions throughout the whole publishing process
- Conferring directly with clients to discuss and negotiate requirements and specifications
- Editing and modifying graphical elements with the use of relevant graphic and image editing software
- Deciding text designs such as text sizes, fonts, and so on.