

Dialysis Technician Job Description

---

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Assemble the dialysis machine and guarantee that it is sterile and in great working condition before starting a session with a patient
- Record patient's data
- Ensure that the patient is in the best possible position for every session
- Inspect the dialysis machine before starting the session to guarantee it's consistent with health norms
- Examine a patient's outline and control his/her anesthesia; embed a needle and start the dialysis system
- Mix the dialysate recipe as per the medicine composed by the patient's doctor
- While the method is going on, the technician checks liquid rates and the anticoagulant changing them as vital
- Monitor the machine for breakdowns and the patient for unfavorable responses
- Respond to any cautions that go off or any crises that surfaces
- Disconnect the machine after the method and clean and sanitize it
- Record the patient's indispensable signs before the patient goes home, including temperature, weight, breath rate, circulatory strain, and heartbeat
- Report any patients' enthusiastic or physical issues to the medical attendant on the obligation
- Maintain tolerant secrecy consistently
- Assist in instructing the patient about care and the method of dialysis to be applied
- Take legitimate wellbeing safety measures to avert blood borne sicknesses.

Dialysis Technician Requirements – Skills, Knowledge, and Abilities

- High School Diploma

- Complete a dialysis preparatory program from a professional school or junior college
- Passed the Board of Nephrology Examination for Nurses and Technicians (BONENT)
- Certified Hemodialysis Technician (CHT) certification
- Must possess exhaustive information on how to work the dialysis machine and how it influences the human body
- Capacity to react rapidly and legitimately to a crisis circumstance
- Mechanical fitness and aptitude
- Full knowledge about how the human kidney functions with different organs to keep the body sound
- Exceptional organizational skill and attention to detail
- Possess solid interpersonal skills, great composure, and verbal relational abilities.