

Disney Graphic Designer Job Description

- Utilizing creativity and artistic techniques to tell a story or convey information in visual form
- Presenting final animated and/or design pieces to the management for approval
- Utilizing software and other relevant techniques to produce animations and designs
- Strictly adhering to Disney guidelines and policies while carrying out duties
- Reading and examining scripts and storylines to understand design and animation requirements
- Developing sketches and storyboards for the initial stages of production
- Creating and developing models, drawings, illustrations, and representations by hand or with the use of relevant electronic software
- Staying up-to-date with the latest graphic design and marketing trends
- Working efficiently and effectively to develop Disney's identity.