Entry-Level Graphic Designer Job Description

- Working cooperatively as part of the design team with research and development of creative projects
- Developing and maintaining healthy relationships with vendors that will assist the organization to achieve its objectives
- Creating and/or developing storyboards and coming up with concepts for the initial stages of design production
- Developing and designing a product brand identity
- Working collaboratively with multiple departments
- Liaising with customers or clients when necessary and reporting back to the senior graphic designer.