

Family Practice Nurse Practitioner Job Description

---

- Responsible for providing episodic and chronic care, as well as screening and educational assistance to the clinic's patients
- Recognize diversity of patient population and treat all warmly and kindly
- Work in harmony with other members of the healthcare team to provide quality service to patients
- Provide quality care to patients by following the most current evidence-based guideline and procedure of practice
- Following the clinics' evidence-based guidelines, perform common vaccinations and diagnostic screenings
- Take part in quality assurance audits, including continuing education, CP review, medication administration review, and peer review
- Ensure company's objectives regarding financials, patient engagement, and healthcare quality
- Promote company's services to patients, customers visiting the store, and to local community population by carrying out promotional campaigns, including offering of signage and promotional codes, as well as conducting outreach in the locality
- Ensure participation in continuing nursing education and training to keep abreast of current developments in the industry
- Ensure state licensure and national certification remain current and valid
- Ensure continuous flow of communication with leadership of healthcare clinic to enhance quality of healthcare service to patients
- Perform other tasks that may be assigned by a superior, such as the chief nurse practitioner officer, market manager, or the vice president.