

Fashion Designer Job Description

- Designing clothes
- Making sketches of fabric patterns
- Creating dress patterns, while making adjustments based on the client's needs
- Applying patchwork to clothing
- Cutting and sewing cloth to create suitable clothing
- Creating clothes for the client and for sales
- Checking materials and fabrics for colors, textures and weight of cloths
- Designing and creating accessories
- Fitting clothes, customizing clothing, tailoring clothes, altering clothing
- Making colors to match colors of fabric, from mixing colors from fabric to creating color combinations
- Checking out customers who have purchased garments from the company or garment designers before making adjustments to their garments
- Presenting fashion designs before making fashion models for clients in order to gain feedback on their designs.