Funny Graphic Designer Job Description

- Developing and designing humorous and engaging designs
- Combining both rational and irrational inputs into design concepts
- Meeting up with clients to discuss and understand project requirements and specifications
- Keeping up-to-date with the latest trends and jokes in the environment
- Gathering feedback from management, clients, potential stakeholders, and/or co-workers and integrating them into designs
- Staying up-to-date with the latest graphic design development, trends, and tools.