

Home Depot Delivery Driver Job Description

- Driving a truck and delivering items as needed
- Making sure all deliverable areas are covered and completed on time
- Loading and unloading large packages onto trucks, according to company standards
- Scheduling their deliveries ahead of time
- Maintaining a safe driving record for the past three years
- Keeping cool under pressure
- Working in both warm and cold weather conditions
- Working on weekends and holidays as needed. Delivery drivers are required to work according to company standards, which often mean working during some holidays. For example, Christmas is a popular holiday for their drivers.
- Staying knowledgeable about the different rules in your city when it comes to delivering packages.