

Home Depot Flooring Associate Job Description

- Direct and assist customers with flooring purchases such as tile, carpet, wood, laminate, and vinyl
- Provide product information such as use, style, and color to customers
- Organize merchandise by department or type of merchandise on display floor for sale
- Assist customers in completing their purchase by entering order into register, removing old merchandise, and delivering new products to customers
- Provide customer service by describing product uses or availability of in-stock items
- Put up sale signs or advertisements for flooring products
- Assist loss prevention team with out of stocks and damaged claims; loading trucks and taking out trash
- Follow all company policies and procedures, including safety, security, and loss prevention, and inventory control.