

Home Depot Kitchen and Bath Designer Job Description

---

- Develop floor plans, create electrical layouts and make material selections for the kitchens and baths
- Formulate detailed cost estimates for products and services.
- Present finished design to customers
- Recommend products and services to customers in-line with their budget
- Work closely with the head office manager, store manager and teams to make sure they are happy with the result of the design
- Organize project schedule according to customer's need
- Provide feedback on any possible improvements to home depot service or product line
- Follow up on projects to check whether the customer is happy with everything
- Review product information in line with the latest design trends available in home depot stores
- Troubleshoot project issues with the help of internal departments and suppliers
- Make sure that all kitchen or bathroom materials are costing within budgeted amounts
- Create costing plans for upcoming projects, which will determine savings opportunities if possible
- Provide information to customers regarding what will be saved on installation costs by using certain design suggestions
- Use design software to create an image of the kitchen or bathroom
- Prepare a list of items required from Home Depot in order to complete their project. They also put together a detailed project proposal for the customer
- Use email to communicate plans, questions and designs with the customer

- Use phone to communicate with Home Depot's head office manager, stores' managers, and stores' assistant managers.