

Home Depot Lot Associate Job Description

- Operating cash registers and answering questions about various products
- Assisting customers with loading, unloading, locating products in the store, directing them to customer service, and acting as a greeter
- Greeting customers with a smile and willing assistance
- Keeping store organized and neat
- Being friendly and courteous to customers and co-workers by maintaining a pleasant attitude
- Helping injured or handicapped customers in store
- Offering special discounts where applicable
- Assisting in the collection of money from customer purchases
- Accurately tallying cash and credit register transactions
- Following all company policies and procedures, including security measures
- Perform physical activity which may include standing for long periods of time, walking or climbing stairs, bending, and reaching
- Physically fit to lift 50 pounds
- Picking orders accurately from the selling floor, identifying items on order
- Loading and unloading trucks
- Stocking and organizing all products in the department where assigned.