

Home Depot Plumbing Associate Job Description

- Responsible for moving items to and from storage areas
- Assist drivers with loading/unloading items from delivery trucks and moving them to storage areas
- Follow procedures for receiving, stocking, pricing, and issuing goods
- Remove items from saleable condition and replace with new or demonstrator stock as appropriate.
- Ensure compliance with state and local rules and regulations regarding sales practices
- Ability to work a flexible retail schedule required, including evenings, weekends and holidays
- Maintain cleanliness of store facilities and surrounding areas from trash during restocking periods
- Maintains customer service standards
- Assist customers by locating merchandise
- Under direction, sets up promotional displays
- Follows safety guidelines and complies with company policy regarding safe work practices.