Hotel Graphic Designer Job Description

- Conceptualize visual designs according to specifications and requirements
- Creating sketches, images, and layouts, by hand or with the utilization of relevant computer-aided design (CAD) software
- Planning projects and defining budget constraints
- Creating design concepts and presenting them to the management or potential stakeholders for approval
- Adjusting design concepts based on feedback from management, clients, team members, and/or stakeholders
- Having current knowledge of the latest graphic design development and trends.