

Interior Graphic Designer Job Description

---

- Overseeing and handling of design projects from conception to completion
- Determining project requirements and schedules during the brief
- Identify customer needs, requirements, and/or specifications and interpreting and/or translating them into rough plans
- Carrying out adequate research and making decisions on materials and product sourcing
- Overseeing and supervising the progress of the task at hand
- Researching and strictly adhering by industry changes, evolutions, and best practices.