

Junior Graphic Designer Job Description

---

- Creating and assembling images and graphics for several purposes, such as producing designs for websites, print media, product design, displays, and productions.
- Actively participating in the designing and development of product brand identity.
- Working cooperatively with multiple departments and/or as part of a creative team.
- Directing marketing design projects.
- Examining and understanding various project requirements and ideas.
- Using feedback or project from other designers to improve.
- Staying up-to-date with the latest graphic design development trends.
- Being open to extensive and continuous learning.