

Mason Worker Job Description

---

- Ensuring that surfaces are well-prepared before beginning a job
- Supervising the fabrication; maintaining, altering, and repairing of walls, sidewalks, street curbs, floors, sink counters, bathroom showers, and other related structures or surfaces
- Carrying out the estimation of materials and labor
- Operating equipment such as a forklift, dump truck, and flatbed
- Reading blueprints and drawings to accurately calculate materials needed
- Making sure all expansion joints are filled with appropriate caulking materials
- Ensuring that surfaces are cleaned and polished with the necessary hand or power tools
- Laying out patterns, forms, or foundations following plans
- Maintaining a neat and tidy work area after completing a job
- Staying up to date with all safety procedures and regulations, and following them rigorously.