

Masonry Laborer Job Description

- Assisting with the preparation of concrete and mortar
- Helping the mason to lay stones, bricks, blocks, and several other materials to form structures
- Ensuring that surfaces are prepared before beginning work
- Ensuring that the laying of blocks or bricks conforms to blueprints, plans, or drawings
- Molding expansion joints and edges with the use of the necessary tools such as edging tools, jointers, straightedge, and so on
- Mixing grout or cement and moving it to the work area
- Cutting bricks that are needed for corners, arches, and complex patterns
- Ensuring that the required tools needed for a job or project are ready and well-kept after the job.