

NBA Commissioner Job Description

- Responsible for bargaining contracts for game broadcasts, sponsorships, and franchise ownership or participation
- Follow the contract agreement to discipline erring players for the violation of league rules, including personal conduct policy and misbehavior in games
- Responsible for the appraisal of suspended players
- Responsible for the provision of guidelines, recommendations, and other assistance to owners in connection with making rules, including on draft eligibility and conduct of games
- Grant media interviews as needed
- Responsible for employing league front office personnel
- Take action for lawsuits against the league and also instigate lawsuits by the league as necessary
- Provide direction over the draft of NBA prospects.