

Pharmacologist Job Description

---

- Provide safe, effective, and cost-effective medications
- Recommend medications to the Medical Director
- Plan, conduct, and analyze clinical trial of new medications
- Monitor patient's reaction to prescribed medication
- Advise patients on medication usage to avoid drug interactions
- Maintain medical records of patients taking drugs under your care
- Prepare reports detailing drug testing and result analysis made regularly to Medical Director
- Oversee preparation of intravenous (IV) solutions used in clinical trials
- Recommend appropriate tests and treatments for complications or side effects from medications
- Perform training and orientation programs for new employees on hospital policies and procedures
- Act as a resource person to physicians, patients and their families in drug-related matters
- Observe good sanitation and safety practices while performing duties
- Provide patient/family care within your scope of practice in accordance with hospital policies, procedures, and protocols
- Adhere to federal, state, and local regulations related to administration of prescription drugs.