

Target Security Specialist Job Description

- Responsible for developing and maintaining the company's overall security program
- Ensure that all employees are trained on the latest techniques used to protect company data
- Monitor network traffic and report any suspicious activity
- Perform penetration tests on the company's network to ensure it is safe from external threats
- Assist other departments within the company with technical issues
- Assess new technologies and products to see if they would benefit the company
- Create and implement effective internal policies and procedures
- Ensure that all company policies and practices are followed
- Perform audits of the company's IT system to identify weak points and vulnerabilities
- Provide support to other departments within your organization
- Respond to customer inquiries promptly
- Adapt to change and learn new ways to do business
- Maintain a high level of confidentiality
- Keep up-to-date on industry trends and news related cyber security
- Manage multiple projects simultaneously
- Make recommendations regarding changes to the organization's security policy based on current events
- Handle multiple customer inquiries in a timely manner
- Report any suspicious activity immediately
- Provide technical support to customers
- Evaluate new technologies and products to understand their benefits and drawbacks
- Determine whether or not these technologies and products would benefit the company.